

COMMUNITY IMPACT GRANT ~ SCORING RUBRIC

United Way of Greater Fall River

ALIGNMENT WITH UNITED WAY WORLDWIDE GOALS

HEALTH	EDUCATION	FINANCIAL STABILITY
To ensure 90% of Americans are healthier by 2028, United Way will fight for:	To ensure that 95 percent of students graduate high school ready for college and a career and 5 million people get better jobs, United Way will fight for:	To ensure 5 million Americans are financially stable and have better paying jobs by 2028, United Way will fight for:
Improved and expanded access to healthcare coverage for children and adults	Increased access to high quality early care and education opportunities, especially for low-income children and their families	Strengthening workforce development programs and expanding job training
Increased resources for behavioral health services for children and adults	The funding and effective implementation of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act	Protection of and increased access to refundable tax credits
	Expanded opportunities for students to obtain a post-secondary credential	Strengthening child nutrition and other nutrition-related income supports
		Support of policies to improve the nation's affordable and emergency housing options and supports
If the grant proposal aligns with UWW goal for HEALTH, award up to 5 points	If the grant proposal aligns with UWW goal for EDUCATION, award up to 5 points	If the grant proposal aligns with UWW goal for FINANCIAL STABILITY, award up to 5 points

EFFECTIVENESS OF GRANT PROPOSAL

	1 point	2 points	3 points
Community Need	Proposal provides limited proof of community need for program.	Proposal provides limited data and research identifying community need for program.	Proposal provides extensive data and research identifying community need for program.
Impact	Proposal will have limited long-term impact on the Greater Fall River community.	Proposal will have moderate long-term impact on the Greater Fall River community.	Proposal will have measurable, profound impact on the Greater Fall River community.
Program Design	Project is redundant of other community efforts.	Project offers some unique service or caters to a unique population.	Project targets specific population with a unique service not offered by other community groups or efforts.
Maximization of Resources	Project duplicates other community efforts without attempting collaboration.	Project recognizes other parties offering similar services or serving a similar population. Project seeks to reduce or limit duplication of services through dialogue and collaboration with local partners.	Project proactively works to reduce duplication of services. Project is engaged with other providers to enhance services offered. Project promotes partnership and collaboration between two or more local organizations.
Budget	Limited financial oversight. Documentation is limited. Financial request is not clearly explained nor appropriate for activities proposed.	Project has clear oversight. Provided documentation is adequate. Financial request is explained and appropriate for activities proposed.	Project has clear oversight. Provided documentation is substantial. Financial request is clear and comprehensive; request is appropriate for activities proposed.
Measurement	Project has no mechanism in place to measure effectiveness of program.	Project has limited mechanisms in place to measure effectiveness of program.	Project has clear mechanisms in place to measure effectiveness of program.